What Great Brands Do

From Starbucks to IBM to Zumba, great brands are admired for their bold moves and innovative approaches. But what really separates merely good brands from those that triumph over time and achieve sustained business success?

In this keynote address, brand expert Denise Lee Yohn unlocks the principles behind the world's greatest brands. Drawing from case studies, analysis, and interviews with brand leaders, Denise explains best practices including "great brands avoid selling products" and "great brands never have to 'give back.'"

Participants will be challenged to think differently about their brands and businesses, and be inspired to go from good to great by applying fresh strategies.

"Transform brand-building from a costly, discrete, and subjective activity into the most integral way of managing and growing your business."
